F.No. 2(5) PFMR-I/2020-Vol-I

Islamabad, the 3rd May, 2021

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: REMOVAL OF DIFFICULTIES FOR PENSIONERS RECEIVING PENSION IN PAKISTAN BUT LIVING ABROAD

The undersigned is directed to refer to Finance Division SRO(1)/2021 dated 28-01-2021 and to state that pensioner(s) receiving pension in Pakistan, who, at times proceed abroad or take up residence abroad, may face stoppage of pension due to non-production of Life Certificate or non-carrying out biometric verification.

2. To remove the difficulty, it has been decided that such pensioners may provide proof of life by way of a Life Certificate authenticated by any gazetted officer of a Pakistan Mission abroad /or a medical certificate issued by medical practitioner in a host country, through Pakistan Missions, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) to Chief Accounts Officer, MOFA, Islamabad who will forward it to the concerned bank for updating it into NADRA system so that the payment of pension may be continued by the Accounts Office concerned. (The specimen of life certificate to be authenticated by any gazetted officer of a Pakistan Mission is attached).

No.F.2(5)PFMR-II/2020-426

Islamabad, the May 06, 2021

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: BIOMETRIC VERIFICATION OF PENSIONERS

The undersigned is directed to refer to the amendment of Federal Treasury Rule (FTR) 341A issued by Finance Division vide Notification No.F.2(5)PFMR-II/2020 dated January 28, 2021 whereby it was notified that if a pensioner drawing pension fails to submit a life certificate or fails to undergo NADRA's biometric verification during the months of March and October or he does not draw his pension for consecutive six months, his account shall become dormant.

2. In view of COVID-19 situation, the requirement of biometric verification at bank branches is held in abeyance. The pensioners may continue to provide the proof of life as per previous practices till further orders.
